

EXAM REVISION

1. Explain the difference between a company's vision and mission statements. Why are both important in strategic management?
2. Identify and briefly explain two external factors that can influence a company's strategic decisions.
3. What is competitive advantage? Give one example of how a company can achieve competitive advantage.
4. Explain the purpose of a SWOT analysis in strategic management.
5. What is the difference between strategic planning and operational planning?
6. Briefly explain Porter's Five Forces model and its role in industry analysis.
7. What are the main characteristics of a differentiation strategy? Provide one example.
8. Why is organizational culture important in strategy implementation?
9. Explain the concept of strategic control and why organizations need it.
10. What are the risks and benefits of diversification strategy for a business?
11. What is the purpose of environmental scanning in strategic management?
12. Explain the relationship between corporate strategy and business-level strategy.
13. What is benchmarking? How can organizations use benchmarking to improve performance?
14. Describe the role of leadership in successful strategy implementation.
15. What is a strategic alliance? State one advantage and one disadvantage of forming strategic alliances.
16. Explain the importance of innovation in maintaining long-term competitiveness.
17. What is market penetration strategy? Give one practical example of its application.
18. Why do companies conduct competitor analysis? Mention two key benefits.
19. Explain the concept of core competencies and their importance in strategic management.
20. What challenges may organizations face when implementing strategic change?